Faith and the Family — A Deacon's Perspective

Prayer. What is it? Who needs it? Why do we pray? All good questions with no single or simple answer. I don't intend to go into an in-depth discussion about prayer in this short column, we can do that in the classroom or possibly a homily sometime in the future. But I've included here a few thoughts on prayer.

Prayer, as defined in the Catechism of the Catholic Church is, "The elevation of the mind and heart to God in praise of his glory; a petition made to God for some desired good, or in thanksgiving for a good received, or in intercession for others before God. Through prayer the Christian experiences a communion with God through Christ in the Church." So, that just answered the question as to what prayer is. The next question, who needs prayer, I think should be pretty self-evident to any Christian who is concerned with their spiritual life, or wanting to grow it. We all need to pray! We all need prayer because it elevates the mind and heart to God. Why we pray centers on our disposition, or what may be happening, or not, in our lives. As we just read from the Catechism prayer can take the form of, 1. Giving praise and glory to God, 2. A petition can be made to God for a specific need that is good, 3. Thanksgiving to God, 4. An intercession to God can be made for the benefit of another.

Prayer can be further broken down from here as to how we pray, but for now, let's keep it simple so the whole family can participate, as the whole family should! The most basic and simple prayer of the family can be the sign of the cross. We can do this, or make this simple gesture of prayer, at any time or anyplace. It is good for our children and others to see us make this simple prayer of "crossing ourselves" even if that's all we do. In our family we make the sign of the cross before and after our meal prayer, and before and after all other prayers. I also make the sign of the cross when I pass before any Catholic Church (I know Jesus is present there inside the tabernacle), and when an ambulance or fire truck or police vehicle passes by as I pray "I hope whoever they are going to help is safe". Now that's an easy prayer we can all make. We should also pray before we hop in the car to take a trip, whether alone or going on vacation with the family; gather and offer a petition to God to grant you a safe trip. Is someone you know, family or friend sick, perhaps with a serious illness or going into surgery? Gather your family and say a prayer for them; this would be intercessory prayer. And if you're not good at putting words together yourself for a prayer, you don't need to be eloquent, you can always pray the Our Father or Hail Mary. It's not so much how good we pray, just that we pray, and include your family in that prayer. When our family gathers for a meal and grandchildren are present, very often we ask one of them to lead us in prayer, grace, before the meal. They enjoy it and so do we!

Remember, as our kids get older they will likely do what they did growing up. Fathers, this is a big one for you - involve yourself with the family in prayer and GO TO MASS WITH YOUR FAMILY. The Mass is the highest form of prayer we can offer to God and you need to be with your kids at Mass. The children who don't have a father that attends Mass with them are the ones most likely to stop going to Mass when they leave the home. Statistics bear out this sad reality. You, dad, are the most significant role model in your family. Want a holy family, be a holy man! It was a Catholic priest that coined the phrase,"The family that prays together stays together."

Prayer need not be difficult or burdensome, but simple and often. If you are one to "think" a prayer in your head, start saying it out loud, for everyone to hear! We read in 1 Thessalonians to "pray without ceasing". In other words communicate with God continuously throughout the day rather than just speaking words 24 hours a day. It's important that we cultivate a life of prayer. It's also important that we bring our family into that prayer. It may feel awkward at first, but in no time you'll be praying like a saint... all the way to heaven. —Deacon Brad Bell

Fe y Familia — Oración Desde la Perspectiva de un Diácono

Oración. ¿Qué es? ¿Quién la necesita? ¿Por qué oramos? Todas son buenas preguntas sin una respuesta única o simple. No tengo intención de entrar en una discusión profunda sobre la oración en esta breve columna, podemos hacerlo en el aula o posiblemente en una homilía en el futuro. Pero he incluido aquí algunas reflexiones sobre la oración.

La oración, tal como se define en el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, es: "La elevación de la mente y el corazón a Dios en alabanza a su gloria; una petición hecha a Dios por algún bien deseado, o en acción de gracias por un bien recibido, o en intercesión por otros ante Dios. A través de la oración, el cristiano experimenta una comunión con Dios a través de Cristo en la Iglesia." Así que eso solo respondió la pregunta de qué es la oración. La siguiente pregunta, ¿quién necesita oración?, creo que debería ser bastante evidente para cualquier cristiano que esté preocupado por su vida espiritual o quiera hacerla crecer. ¡Todos necesitamos orar! Todos necesitamos oración porque eleva la mente y el corazón a Dios. Por qué oramos se centra en nuestra disposición, o en lo que puede estar pasando, o no, en nuestras vidas. Como acabamos de leer del Catecismo, la oración puede tomar la forma de, 1. Dar alabanza y gloria a Dios, 2. Se puede hacer una petición a Dios por una necesidad específica que sea buena, 3. Acción de gracias a Dios, 4. Se puede hacer una intercesión a Dios para el beneficio de otro.

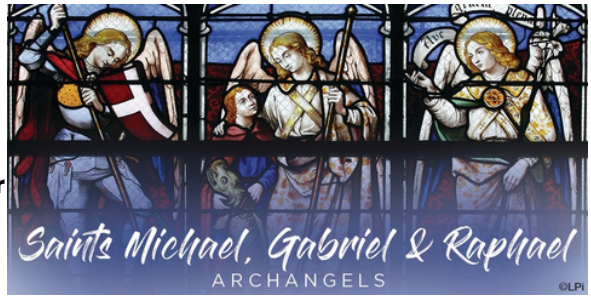

La oración puede desglosarse más a partir de aquí según cómo oramos, pero por ahora, mantengámosla simple para que toda la familia pueda participar, ¡cómo debe hacerlo toda la familia! La oración más básica y simple de la familia puede ser la señal de la cruz. Podemos hacer esto, o hacer este simple gesto de oración, en cualquier momento o lugar. Es bueno para nuestros hijos y para otros vernos hacer esta simple oración de "signos de signo", aunque eso sea todo lo que hacemos. En nuestra familia hacemos la señal de la cruz antes y después de nuestra oración de comida, y antes y después de todas las demás oraciones. También hago la señal de la cruz cuando paso ante cualquier iglesia católica (sé que Jesús está ahí dentro del tabernáculo), y cuando pasa una ambulancia, un camión de bomberos o un vehículo de policía mientras rezo "espero que quien vaya a ayudar esté a salvo". Esa es una oración fácil que todos podemos hacer. También deberíamos orar antes de subirnos al auto para hacer un viaje, ya sea solos o de vacaciones con la familia; reunirnos y pedir a Dios que les conceda un viaje seguro. ¿Alguien que conoces, familiar o amigo, está enfermo, tal vez con una enfermedad grave o en proceso de cirugía? Reúne a tu familia y reza por ellos; esto sería una oración de intercesión. Y si no eres bueno para juntar palabras por ti mismo para una oración, no necesitas ser elocuente, siempre puedes orar al Padre Nuestro o Ave María. No es tanto qué tan bien oremos, sino que oremos e incluyamos a tu familia en esa oración. Cuando nuestra familia se reúne para una comida y hay nietos presentes, muy a menudo pedimos a uno de ellos que nos guíe en oración de gracias, antes de la comida. ¡Ellos lo disfrutan y nosotros también!

Recuerda, a medida que nuestros hijos crezcan, probablemente harán lo mismo que hicieron al crecer. Padres, esta es una gran pregunta para ustedes: involucren a la familia en la oración y VAYAN A MISA CON SU FAMILIA. La Misa es la forma más alta de oración que podemos responder a Dios y necesitas estar con tus hijos en la Misa. Los niños que no tienen un padre que asista a Misa con ellos son los que más probablemente dejarán de ir a Misa cuando salen de casa. Las estadísticas confirman esta triste realidad. Tú, papá, eres el modelo a seguir más importante en tu familia. ¡Si quieres una familia santa, sé un hombre santo! Fue un sacerdote católico quien acuñó la frase: "La familia que ora junta permanece unida."

La oración no tiene que ser difícil o una carga, sino simple y frecuente. Si eres de los que "piensan" una oración en tu cabeza, ¡empieza a decirla en voz alta para que todos la escuchen! Leemos en 1 Tesalonicenses que "oren sin cesar". En otras palabras, comunicarnos con Dios continuamente durante el día en lugar de solo hablar las 24 horas del día. Es importante que cultivemos una vida de oración. También es importante que involucremos a nuestra familia en esa oración. Puede sentirse incómodo al principio, pero en poco tiempo estarás orando como un santo... hasta el cielo. —Diacono Brad Bell

Q What happens at a session for inquirers?

A The period of evangelization and precatechumenate is for inquirers to "come and see." The Gospel is proclaimed, and inquirers share their own stories, exploring how the Gospel throws light on their lives. With the catechists who accompany and share faith with them, they reflect on experiences of doubt, joy, searching, pain, and relationships, and explore the ways that God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit have already been present in their lives. It is a time to ask questions, discuss what they have heard about Catholic Christian faith, meet people in the community, and see for themselves how the faith is practiced.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God,
we thank you for the gift of our priests.
Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.
Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.
Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.
Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.
Amen.
