Pastor's Corner / Reflexión del Pastor

Do we hear an echo today? Just two weeks ago, Jesus made a promise to Peter that laid the foundations of the Church: "... on this rock I will build my Church." As he gave to Peter the keys of the kingdom of heaven, Jesus stated, "what you bind on earth is bound in heaven, and what you loose on earth has been loosed in heaven." With the Greek verb being written in the singular, this role was delineated to Peter alone.

Now a few chapters later in Matthew, Jesus speaks to all of his disciples about correcting those in error. He says the same thing as before, but now referring to all the disciples: "Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." As all the 12 are called to share in Peter's responsibility, Jesus draws the Church to share in his own heavenly authority.

What is Jesus drawing the apostles into? He's arrived from the realm that he keeps referring to, from heaven. Jesus has embarked on a rescue mission, to break us out of where we're trapped on earth. His strategy involves first the twelve, then those they reach, and extends to us today.

What Jesus is giving to the Apostles and his Church orients us toward something beyond us. As long as we don't realize that what's found on earth connects with what's in heaven, we won't see the point of Jesus' work. But what if we recognize that what we pay attention here to isn't the center of reality, and that this outsider has something important to share with us?

Peter's keys and the Church's binding and loosing of each of us is meaningless for those committed to this world alone. But for those who have noticed that Jesus has introduced another reality into ours, has brought heaven into a collision course with earth, the role of the apostles, and their counterparts the bishops today, becomes central.

Pray for our shepherd, Bishop Jaime Soto, pray for his flock, we in the diocese of Sacramento, that we live that obedience that allows what is bound and loosed here to give us full participation in the kingdom of heaven.

¡Oímos hoy un eco? Hace apenas dos semanas, Jesús hizo una promesa a Pedro que sentó las bases de la Iglesia: "...sobre esta roca edificaré mi Iglesia". Al entregar a Pedro las llaves del reino de los cielos, Jesús afirmó: "Lo que ates en la tierra está atado en el cielo, y lo que desates en la tierra ha sido desatado en el cielo". Con el verbo griego escrito en singular, este papel le fue delineado sólo a Pedro.

Ahora, unos capítulos más adelante en Mateo, Jesús habla a todos sus discípulos sobre corregir a los que están en el error. Dice lo mismo que antes, pero ahora refiriéndose a todos los discípulos: "Os aseguro que todo lo que atéis en la tierra quedará atado en el cielo, y todo lo que desatéis en la tierra quedará desatado en el cielo". Así como los doce son llamados a compartir la responsabilidad de Pedro, Jesús atrae a la Iglesia a compartir su propia autoridad celestial.

¿A qué atrae Jesús a los apóstoles? Ha llegado desde el reino al que sigue refiriéndose, desde el cielo. Jesús se ha embarcado en una misión de rescate, para sacarnos de donde estamos atrapados en la tierra. Su estrategia implica primero a los doce, luego a aquellos a los que llegan, y se extiende a nosotros hoy.

Lo que Jesús entrega a los Apóstoles y a su Iglesia nos orienta hacia algo que está más allá de nosotros. Mientras no nos demos cuenta de que lo que hay en la tierra conecta con lo que hay en el cielo, no veremos el sentido de la obra de Jesús. Pero, ¿qué pasaría si reconociéramos que aquello a lo que prestamos atención aquí no es el centro de la realidad, y que este forastero tiene algo importante que compartir con nosotros?

Las llaves de Pedro y el atar y desatar de cada uno de nosotros por parte de la Iglesia carecen de sentido para quienes están comprometidos sólo con este mundo. Pero para los que se han dado cuenta de que Jesús ha introducido otra realidad en la nuestra, ha hecho que el cielo entre en colisión con la tierra, el papel de los apóstoles, y de sus homólogos los obispos de hoy, se convierte en central.

Rezad por nuestro pastor, el obispo Jaime Soto, rezad por su rebaño, nosotros en la diócesis de Sacramento, para que vivamos esa obediencia que permite que lo que aquí está atado y desatado nos dé plena participación en el reino de los cielos.

Q Who are the inquirers?

A The Church uses the term inquirers to refer to those who are just beginning to explore the Christian faith in the context of a faith community. God has led them to this exploration by many different paths and is already at work in their lives. All Christians have a responsibility toward those who are beginning to explore the life of faith—a responsibility to welcome them warmly and encourage them. Inquirers are looking for evidence of the Spirit and authentic witnesses to the Gospel of Christ.

St. Vincent de Paul News

Friends of the Poor Walk Saturday, September 26

St. Vincent de Paul from Yuba City and Marysville are sponsoring a Friends of the Poor Walk on Saturday, September 26th starting with 9:00 Mass at St. Joseph's Church followed by a walk to Ellis Lake. We will have a table out front to collect sponsorships for walkers (Fr. Avram and the deacons are looking for sponsors) or for anyone to sign up to join us on the walk. T-shirts commemorating the event are available to walkers who have at least one sponsor. All proceeds will stay in our communities to help both our and St. Joseph's conferences continue serving those in need. Please support us by walking and/or sponsoring a walker.

Volunteers Needed!

St. Vincent de Paul is looking for a volunteer to answer phones on Wednesday mornings. (Bilingual would be helpful, but not required.) Sometimes our pantry is so busy that our volunteers cannot both serve our guests and answer the phones. Hours are 9:00-11:15. Training will be provided. Call us at 530-671-5154 or stop by our office.

Caminata de Amigos

San Vicente de Paúl de Yuba City y Marysville está patrocinando una Caminata de Amigos de los Pobres el sábado 26 de septiembre, que comenzará con misa a las 9:00 en la Iglesia de San José, seguida de una caminata hasta Ellis Lake. Tendremos una mesa afuera para recolectar patrocinadores para los participantes (el Padre Avram y los diáconos están buscando patrocinadores) o para que cualquiera se inscriba para acompañarnos en la caminata. Camisetas conmemorativas del evento están disponibles para quienes caminen y tengan al menos un patrocinador. Todas las ganancias permanecerán en nuestras comunidades para ayudar tanto a nuestras conferencias como a las de San José a seguir sirviendo a quienes lo necesiten. Por favor, apóyanos caminando y/o patrocinando a un caminante.

Se Buscan Voluntarios

San Vicente de Paúl está buscando un voluntario para contestar teléfonos los miércoles por la mañana. (Bilingüe sería útil, pero no es obligatorio.) A veces nuestra despensa está tan ocupada que nuestros voluntarios no pueden atender a nuestros huéspedes y contestar el teléfono. El horario es de 9:00 a 11:15. Se proporcionará capacitación. Llámanos al 530-671-5154 o pasa por nuestra oficina.

Men Need Brotherhood

Fraternity is not just for religious orders. God created us to unite with each other in brotherhood. When men live their faith alone and isolated, they can become weak and vulnerable to the snares of the devil. When men live their faith together in true brotherhood, they become stronger together in Christ. Sin isolates us, while holiness unites us, and the unity that we are called to is not just with God alone, but with the whole Body of Christ.

Like monastics, men can come together to live their faith loudly and open themselves up to the accountability and strength that comes from communion. That is why St. Isidore is blessed to announce the sixth year of Fraternus!

Fraternus is a Catholic brotherhood in which men are challenged to accept and live the reality that they are sons of God. As sons of God, they are truly brothers. And as men mature as brothers they in turn become fathers that pass on the faith. In Fraternus, we mentor young men from 6th grade through High School, and invite them to go deeper in their faith and to grow with their brothers in Christ.

Interested? Talk with an officer or captain of Fraternus after Mass today.

We meet each Tuesday night at 6:30 pm starting September 8th.

See fraternus.org or a Fraternus Captain to learn more, and to begin the adventure of a lifetime!
