BE A ROCK

Peter's history as a follower or friend of Jesus is a bit spotty. It might be natural to wonder if Jesus, in giving him the keys to the kingdom, didn't feel a bit like a parent giving a teenager the keys to the family car. But it was at the moment when God's power and presence broke through everything else to raise up Peter's great profession of faith in Christ as Messiah that Jesus chose to establish the bond between the loving, forgiving mercy of heaven and our vocation to be witnesses of that love, mercy, and forgiveness on earth.

Like any parent, Jesus no doubt foresaw the failings, the irresponsible maneuvers or impaired senses, the collisions that the church would be headed for. But, most importantly, he also saw us at that moment as God prefers to see us: capable of manifesting great faith, with a willingness to remain at the feet of Christ to understand what it truly means to be Messiah and Christ. As the letter to the Romans points out to us today, we have not known the mind or the wisdom of God, but God knows us and still chooses to manifest the reign of justice, joy, beauty, and peace through us. Let this be our vocation. Let us always strive to be solid ground on which the church of Jesus Christ can be founded and on which it can continue to be built.

SÉ UNA ROCA

La historia de Pedro como seguidor o amigo de Jesús es un poco irregular. Resulta natural preguntarnos si Jesús, al darle las llaves del Reino, no se sintió un poco como el padre que le entrega a su adolescente las llaves del auto de la familia. Pero fue en el momento en que el poder y la presencia de Dios irrumpió traspasándolo todo para que brotara de Pedro la gran profesión de fe en Cristo como Mesías que Jesús eligió establecer el vínculo entre la misericordia amorosa de Dios y nuestra vocación como testigos de ese amor y ese perdón en la tierra.

Como cualquier padre, Jesús sin duda previó las fallas, las maniobras irresponsables y los sentidos dañados, las colisiones hacia donde se dirigiría la Iglesia. Pero, lo que es más importante, también nos vio en el momento en que Dios prefiere vernos: capaces de manifestar gran fe, con el deseo de permanecer a los pies de Cristo para comprender lo que realmente es ser Mesías y ser Cristo. Como nos lo señala hoy la carta a los romanos, no hemos conocido jamás el pensamiento del Señor o llegado a ser su consejero, mas Dios nos conoce y aún elige para que manifestemos el reino de justicia, gozo, hermosura y paz. Que esta sea nuestra vocación. Que siempre busquemos ser tierra firme donde se pueda fundar la Iglesia de Jesucristo y sobre la cual sigue edificándose.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Pondré en sus manos la llave de la Casa de David (Isaías 22:19-23).

Salmo — Señor, tu amor perdura eternamente; obra tuya soy, no me abandones (Salmo 138 [137]).

Segunda lectura — Los designios de Dios son impenetrables, no se pueden comprender sus caminos (Romanos 11:33-36).

Evangelio — Tú eres el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios vivo (Mateo 16:13-20).

Monday this last week was historic for our nation with our first nationwide solar eclipse in 100 years. Monday also marked a distinct Marian apparition beloved by the Irish. In 1879, the Blessed Mother appeared near the little town of Knock on southwestern Ireland. Her visit was distinctive in that it was silent; it was also noteworthy in that she showed up with an entourage.

Joining her were Saint Joseph, Saint John the Evangelist, and a lamb and cross on an altar. The lamb is the image used for Jesus throughout the New Testament, especially in the Book of Revelation. Saint John in this apparition was seen holding a book, so perhaps it also was the Book of Revelation traditionally written by him.

The following day, August 22nd, we celebrated the Coronation of Mary, the fifth Glorious mystery. Mary as queen continues the role she played two millennia ago: she was the one who brought us the infant Jesus, today she brings the power of her Son.

In a beautiful way this Marian presence could be perceived in the eclipse itself. As is familiar from the image of Guadalupe, the description of Mary again in the Book of Revelation describes her as clothed with the sun. With the Guadalupe image, Mary stands in front of the sun with its rays shining all around her. Likewise across the country last Monday, the whole nation saw the moon, the traditional sign for Mary, with the sun as its corona from coast to coast.

As Catholics, we can perceive the timeliness of this reaffirmation of Mary's queenship. Entering into the closing months of this Fatima centenary, we can heed these reminders and take action. Mary in Portugal founded her triumph on our response of prayer: pray the rosary daily, she insisted. As we make this our practice, and invite others to join us, we can witness the transformation of our nation and world.

El lunes pasado fue histórico para nuestra nación ya que tuvimos el primer eclipse solar a nivel nacional en 100 años. El lunes marcó también una aparición mariana distinta y muy querida por los irlandeses. En 1879, la Santísima Madre apareció cerca de la pequeña ciudad de Knock en el suroeste de Irlanda. Su visita fue muy peculiar ya que estaba en silencio; y se presentó con acompañantes.

Junto a ella estaban San José, San Juan Evangelista, un cordero y una cruz en un altar. El cordero es la imagen usada por Jesús en todo el Nuevo Testamento, especialmente en el Libro de Apocalipsis. San Juan en esta aparición fue visto sosteniendo un libro, así que tal vez también fue el Libro del Apocalipsis escrito tradicionalmente por él.

Al día siguiente, 22 de agosto, celebramos la Coronación de María, el quinto misterio glorioso. María como reina continúa con el papel que desempeñó hace dos milenios: fue ella quien nos trajo al niño Jesús, hoy nos trae el poder de su Hijo.

De una manera hermosa esta presencia mariana podía ser percibida en el propio eclipse. Como es familiar de la imagen de Guadalupe, la descripción de María nuevamente en el Libro de Apocalipsis la describe como vestida de sol. Con la imagen de Guadalupe, María se coloca frente al sol con los rayos resplandeciendo a su alrededor. Del mismo modo en todo el país el lunes pasado, toda la nación vio la luna, el signo tradicional de María, con el sol como su corona de costa a costa.

Como católicos, podemos percibir la puntualidad de esta reafirmación de la realeza de María. Al entrar en los últimos meses de este centenario de Fátima, podemos poner nuestra atención a estos recordatorios y actuar. María en Portugal fundó su triunfo en nuestra respuesta de oración: rezar el rosario diariamente, insistió. Al hacer de esto nuestra práctica, e invitar a otros a unirse a nosotros, podemos ser testigos de la transformación de nuestra nación y del mundo.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Más del 40% de la población católica en Estados Unidos es de origen hispano y sólo el 6% de los sacerdotes son hispanos. Hay algo que está mal en las cifras. Parte del problema es que en los seminarios estadounidenses no saben qué hacer con las vocaciones y culturas hispanas. Por otra parte, los hispanos deseamos que nuestros hijos tengan mejor vida y la vocación sacerdotal no constituye un lugar privilegiado en la escala social.

Ciertamente, había un tiempo en que los sacerdotes se trataban con mucho respeto, ya no. Últimamente la escasez de sacerdotes y los escándalos en la Iglesia han hecho que el sacerdocio pierda mucho de su encanto. La vida sacerdotal se ha hecho muy difícil. Hoy día el joven que busca el sacerdocio lo busca por servicio y vocación, no por prestigio o posición social.

El sacerdocio es un apostolado que se recibe con el sacramento del Orden. Ser ordenado es recibir órdenes, es decir, ser obediente. Hoy más que nunca, el sacerdote está llamado a la misma obediencia de Jesucristo, obediencia que lo llevó a la cruz y a la resurrección. Oremos por nuestros sacerdotes para que su entrega sea total.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Eucharistic Prayer II is a popular choice for Mass since it is both simple in structure and short. It is written with a preface, which is the section after the dialogue "The Lord be with you . . . Lift up your hearts . . . Let us give thanks," which introduces all the Eucharistic Prayers. The preface states the reason for the eucharistic assembly on that occasion, and there are dozens of them covering almost every imaginable gathering for prayer, some specific to feasts, others for Masses for the dead or for other needs. The preface attached to the second Eucharistic Prayer may be dropped in favor of a more appropriate choice, especially one of the prefaces for weekdays. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says that Eucharistic Prayer II is best suited for weekdays or "special circumstances." In practice, however, it has become the common Sunday prayer because of its brevity and its comfortable familiarity. It also includes an optional phrase for adding the name of a deceased person remembered in the Mass, and therefore is often prayed at funerals. Article 50 of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy specified that the rites are to be simplified and restored "to the vigor they had in the tradition of the Fathers." The rebirth of this ancient Roman prayer is a worthy response to this call.
