GOD'S WAYS

In the stream of readings during this portion of Ordinary Time one week's texts can often appear to pick up exactly where the previous week's concluded. The sentiments expressed in today's first reading seem to be a direct reaction to the Gospel passage we heard last week. In that Gospel, the landowner pays the same wages to his workers whether they worked for a full day or for only a few minutes. Today Ezekiel gives us the lament, "The LORD's way is not fair!" (Ezekiel 18:25). These Sundays in Ordinary Time offer us a glimpse into the ways of the Lord. We see how God's way has the tendency to turn the accepted conventions of the day upside down. Those who always expected that their way to heaven was guaranteed are disappointed. Those who thought they never had a chance are given that chance. Today offers us another opportunity to discover the abundance of God's mercy and love.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — When the wicked turn away from their wickedness they have committed and do what is right, they shall surely live (Ezekiel 18:25-28).

Psalm — Remember your mercies, O Lord (Psalm 25).

Second Reading — Consider others as better than yourselves; look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others (Philippians 2:1-11 [1-5]).

Gospel — Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you (Matthew 21:28-32).

October begins this weekend: in this centennial year of Fatima we are now only two weeks away from the final apparition of our mother Mary.

Here in Yuba City we'll commemorate this anniversary with an evening Eucharistic Procession and outdoor Mass. But 100 years ago not only were the three children gathered together; at six months into their encounters with Mary, around 70,000 others joined them on October 13th at the Cova da Iria.

In September Mary had shared with the children: "In October I will perform a miracle so that all may believe." Word spread quickly, and many quickly gathered, including many skeptics eager to have the chance to debunk people's credulity.

The testimony of these skeptics now provides powerful confirmation of the events of that October day. While the three children saw Mary and heard her share the same message as she had throughout the year--that she's here to bring peace, and peace comes through our praying the rosary--the muddy and rain soaked crowds witnessed the clouds overhead parting and saw the sun plummet toward them, and then begin to dance with luminous colors radiating from it.

Now, a century later, we don't see the face of Mary: instead we see a world still rocked by violence and division. In 1917 Mary foretold that if we didn't turn to her, we would experience a second greater world war, and the rise of a Russia which would spread atheism and materialism through the world. While both of these are now recorded in history, at this moment violence and division still dominate us: more than ever we need to listen to what our mother told us.

The daily rosary is the cornerstone of Mary's message, but we can also join together as a community in prayer and in confidence. Join us at 5:30 on Friday evening October 13th for our Eucharistic Procession through the streets of our town, praying the rosary for peace. As we celebrate an outdoor Mass afterward in honor of her intervention in our world, we can pray that the culminating part of her message would be fulfilled: "In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph."

sí mismo,*

EL PROCEDER DE DIOS

En la corriente de lecturas durante esta porción del Tiempo Ordinario a menudo parece que los textos de una semana se retoman donde concluyeron los de la semana anterior. Los sentimientos expresados en la primera lectura de hoy parecen ser reacción directa ante el pasaje del Evangelio que escuchamos la semana pasada. En ese Evangelio, el dueño de la viña paga el mismo salario a sus trabajadores, sea que hayan trabajado todo el día o sólo en los últimos minutos de la jornada. Hoy Ezequiel ofrece este lamento, "No es justo el proceder del Señor" (Ezequiel 18:25). Estos domingos del Tiempo Ordinario nos ofrecen una ojeada del proceder del Señor. Vemos cómo ese proceder tiene la tendencia de poner patas arriba las convenciones aceptadas. Los que siempre esperaron que su camino al cielo estaba garantizado quedaron desilusionados. A los que pensaron que nunca tendrían la oportunidad, se les da la oportunidad. Hoy se nos ofrece la oportunidad de descubrir la abundancia de la misericordia y el amor de Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Apártate del pecado para que vivas (Ezequiel 18:25-28).

Salmo — Recuerda tus bondades, oh Señor (Salmo 25 [24]).

Segunda lectura — Guarda en ti la misma actitud que está también en Cristo Jesús (Filipenses 2:1-11 [1-5]).

Evangelio — El que obedece al Señor aunque sea con resistencia, es el que hace la voluntad del Padre (Mateo 21:28-32).

EL RINCON DEL PÁRROCO

Con este fin de semana iniciamos el mes de Octubre: en este año centenario de Fátima estamos a tan sólo dos semanas de la última aparición de nuestra madre María.

Aquí en Yuba City conmemoramos este aniversario con una procesión eucarística por la tarde y misa al aire libre. Hace 100 años no sólo se reunían los tres niños, seis meses después de ese encuentro con María, alrededor de 70,000 personas se unieron a ellos el 13 de octubre en Cova da Iria.

En septiembre, María les dijo a los niños: "En octubre haré un milagro para que todos crean". La palabra se difundió rápidamente, y muchos se reunieron incluyendo muchos incrédulos ansiosos por tener la oportunidad de debilitar la credibilidad de la gente.

El testimonio de estos incrédulos ahora proporciona la confirmación poderosa de los acontecimientos de ese día de octubre. Mientras los tres niños veían a María y escuchaban su mensaje: ella estaba ahí para traer la paz, y que la paz llegaría rezando el Santo Rosario – los presentes mojados por la lluvia presenciaron cuando las nubes poco a poco desaparecieron y el sol salió. Después el Sol comenzó a bailar irradiando colores luminosos.

Un siglo después, no vemos el rostro de María: en cambio vemos un mundo todavía agitado por la violencia y la división. En 1917 María predijo, que si no nos volvíamos a ella, experimentaríamos la segunda guerra mundial más grande y el surgimiento de una Rusia que propagaría el ateísmo y el materialismo alrededor del mundo. Mientras que estos dos acontecimientos han sido registrados en la historia, en este momento la violencia y la división todavía nos dominan. Ahora más que nunca tenemos que escuchar lo que nos dijo nuestra Madre.

Rezar el rosario diario, es el mensaje de María, pero también podemos unirnos como comunidad en oración y confianza. Únase a nosotros a las 5:30 de la tarde del viernes 13 de octubre para nuestra procesión eucarística a través de las calles de nuestra ciudad, rezando el rosario por la paz. Al celebrar una misa al aire libre en honor a su intervención en nuestro mundo, podemos orar para que la parte culminante de su mensaje se cumpla: "Al final, mi Inmaculado Corazón triunfará".

OUR LADY OF MANAOAG CELEBRATION

(Patron Saint of the Sick, Hopeless, and Benefactor of the Needy)

The Filipino Ministry would like to THANK EVERYONE who participated in the 2017 Enthronement Anniversary/Feast Day Celebration and novena prayers to Our Lady of Manaoag. The celebration was a success and special because of all of you and the support you extended. Thank you to those who helped in the set-up/clean-up before and after the event, those who brought delicious foods to share, the flowers offered and those who welcomed Our Lady of Manaoag and prayed the novena in their homes. A special thank you to Father Avram Brown for his approval and support for the continuity of this annual celebration at our parish that started in 2012. To Father Fernando Meza for officiating a beautiful mass celebration and leading the procession. May God Bless us all! We walk by Faith.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

For a catechist, life in the atrium with children is a shared religious experience. We listen and wonder together to the Word of God.

"In this shared religious experience which we, as catechists, are called to live with the children, there is only one true Teacher, who is Christ Himself."

-Listening to God with Children by Gianna Gobbi

If you are interested in learning more about becoming a catechist in the atrium, please contact me at mknnox@stisidore-yubacity.org.

Catequesis Del Buen Pastor

Para un catequista, la vida en el atrio con los niños es una experiencia común. Escuchamos y meditamos juntos la Palabra de Dios.

"En esta experiencia religiosa común, la cual nosotros como catequistas, estamos llamados a vivir con los niños, sólo hay un verdadero Maestro, que es Cristo mismo".

-Listening to God with Children de Gianna Gobbi

Si usted está interesado en aprender más acerca de cómo convertirse en un catequista en el atrio, por favor póngase en contacto conmigo en mknnox@stisidore-yubacity.org.
