The Pastor's Corner

Job's assessment today is pretty grim: "I shall not see happiness again."

That's a heavy determination. Perhaps, in light of the first reading's being selected in light of the Gospel, it has something to do with a mother-in-law. Regarding the passage from Mark, there are those who wonder if Peter's threefold denial had anything to do with Jesus' curing of his mother-in-law today.

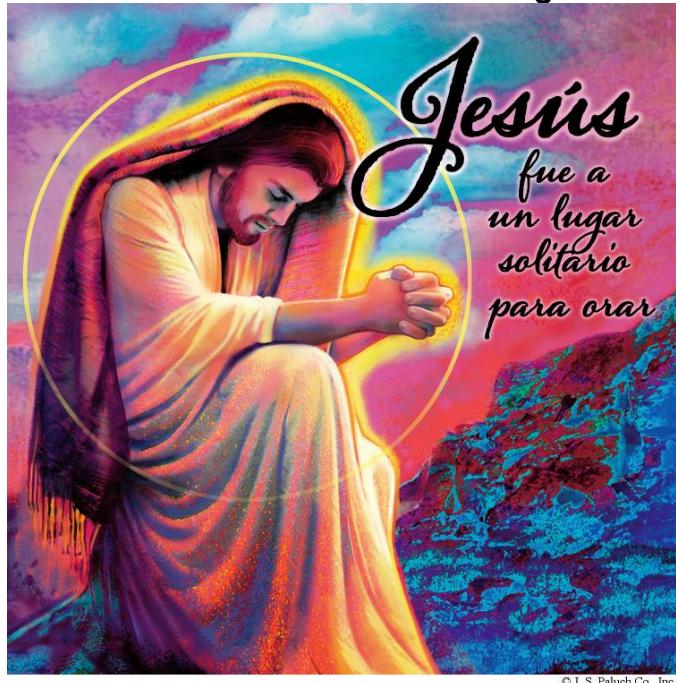

Whimsy aside, the question can be asked why the passage from Job was chosen to complement our Gospel reading. Perhaps the misery and troubled nights Job speaks of are meant to be matched to Jesus' healing of the sick and demon possessed.

Another possible echo: Jesus goes out in the dark of night to have time alone with his Father. This nighttime vigil perhaps corresponds with Job's description of troubled nights, the night dragging on till the dawn as he is filled with restlessness.

Unfortunately, while Jesus spontaneously seeks out time with his God, delighting in that communion more than anything else, for you and me we often find a myriad of other things taking priority in our life. It can take misery, distress that robs us of sleep, to drive us to prayer, to finally seek out God when all else fails.

Job can teach us that those moments of trial are some of the richest opportunities for prayer: anguish flings wide the door to the merciful heart of God. Jesus can teach us that with time and practice, we can delight in this communion even when all is going well, not needing prodding to impel us to pray.

The Lord heals the brokenhearted: we can savor this reality today.

Segunda lectura — Pablo dice que no tienen otra alternativa sino la de predicar el Evangelio (1 Corintios 9:16-19, 22-23).

Evangelio — Después de sanar a muchos enfermos, Jesús predica la Buena Nueva (Marcos 1:29-39).

El Rincón del Párroco

La evaluación de Job hoy es bastante desalentadora: "No volveré a ver la felicidad".

Esa es una gran determinación. Quizás, la primera lectura fue seleccionada tomando en cuenta el Evangelio, tiene que ver con una suegra. Con respecto al pasaje de Marcos, hay quienes se preguntan si el hecho de que Pedro negara a Jesús tuvo algo que ver con él le sanara a la suegra.

Dejando a un lado las extravagancias, uno se puede preguntar por qué el pasaje de Job fue elegido para complementar nuestra lectura del Evangelio. Tal vez la miseria y las noches problemáticas de las que Job habla están destinadas a coincidir con la curación de Jesús de los enfermos y de aquellos poseídos por los demonios.

Otro posible eco: Jesús sale en la oscuridad de la noche para tener tiempo a solas con su Padre. Esta vigilia nocturna tal vez corresponde con la descripción de Job de las noches turbulentas, la noche que se prolonga hasta el amanecer, ya que está lleno de inquietud.

Desafortunadamente, mientras Jesús espontáneamente busca tiempo con su Dios, deleitándose en esa comunión más que cualquier otra cosa, para usted y para mí, a menudo encontramos miles de otras cosas que tienen prioridad en nuestra vida. La miseria, la angustia la cual nos quita el sueño, pueden ser cosas que nos conduzcan a la oración, cosas que finalmente nos lleven a buscar a Dios cuando todo lo demás falla.

Job puede enseñarnos que esos momentos de prueba son algunas de las oportunidades más ricas para la oración: la angustia abre la puerta al corazón misericordioso de Dios. Jesús puede enseñarnos que, con el tiempo y la práctica, podemos deleitarnos en esta comunión incluso cuando todo va bien.

El Señor sana a los quebrantados de corazón: podemos saborear esta realidad hoy.

PARISH NEWS

Assisting people in need

Annual Catholic Appeal

In two weeks (next weekend), on Feb 10-11, we will once again be given the opportunity to be Christ to others. How do we help a family that has suffered great loss? How do we help the homeless man or woman who is looking for a way out of poverty? How do we provide emotional support where it is needed most? As Catholics in the Diocese of Sacramento, we have a way to help those truly in need. By making a generous donation to the Annual Catholic Appeal, you can live the Gospel message to help our brothers and sisters. Our parish received 25% to serve our local ministry to others. The charitable works of the Church, whether in Catholic social service programs or parish-based outreach ministries, depend on all of us. Each of our gifts, no matter the amount, really does make a difference in someone's life. Please prayerfully consider what you can give. Our gift is the Heart of Mercy in Northern California.

Little Black Books

Little Black Books OR Daily Devotionals for Lent will be available in English and Spanish for Adults and Little Purple Books for children ages 5-12 in English. Assisting people in need En dos semanas (el próximo fin de semana), 10 y 11 de febrero, se nos dará una vez más la oportunidad de ser Cristo para el prójimo a través de las Obras de Misericordia. ¿Cómo ayudamos a una familia necesitada? ¿Cuál es la mejor manera de ayudar a los pobres que piden dinero en las calles? Como católicos en la Diócesis de Sacramento tenemos la forma de ayudar a aquellos en verdadera necesidad. Haciendo un donativo generoso al Llamado Católico Anual, tú puedes vivir el Evangelio y ayudar a nuestros hermanos. Esta parroquia recibió 25% para servir a las necesidades locales. Las obras de caridad de la Iglesia, ya sea en los programas católicos de servicio social o ministerios parroquiales depende de todos nosotros. Cada uno de nuestros donativos, sin importar la cantidad, de verdad hace la diferencia en la vida de alguien. Por favor después de orar, consideren lo que ustedes pueden dar. Nuestros donativos al Llamado Católico Anual son la Misericordia en Acción de Norte California.
