GLORY

“Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.”

LUKE 21:27

PASTOR'S CORNER

Happy New Year! Today we begin the Season of Advent, and we start our new liturgical year! We light the first candle on our Advent Wreath, starting a four week countdown to the birthday of the Savior of the World.

We should check in with Jesus to see if he shares our enthusiasm for what's arriving next. "People will die of fright," he says, "in anticipation of what is coming upon the world." Okay, perhaps that's a different note than the one we would have struck.

We start new years off with resolutions, certitude about improving, and optimism for what's coming next. Jesus apparently sees what comes next as so different it will rock this world: "for the powers of the heavens will be shaken."

While that would be terrifying for those not ready for it, Jesus sees his followers as being in a very different situation: "when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand." This massive intervention is good news for us, because God is on the move.

Happy New Year! Because we are ready lightly to let go of what we have, we can accept the new world God is ushering in. Because we're not attached to today's house, today's car, or today's job, we can let it all go as God brings the day that "will assault everyone who lives on the face of the earth."

Happy New Year!

Rincón Del Pastor

¡Feliz Año Nuevo! ¡Hoy comenzamos el tiempo de Adviento y comenzamos nuestro nuevo año litúrgico! Encendemos la primera vela de nuestra Corona de Adviento, comenzando una cuenta regresiva de cuatro semanas hasta el cumpleaños del Salvador del Mundo.

Deberíamos hablar con Jesús para ver si comparte nuestro entusiasmo por lo que viene a continuación. "La gente morirá de miedo," dice, "en anticipación de lo que vendrá sobre el mundo." De acuerdo, tal vez esa sea una nota diferente a la que hubiéramos tocado.

Comenzamos el año nuevo con resoluciones, certeza de mejorar y optimismo para lo que vendrá después. Jesús aparentemente ve lo que viene después como algo tan diferente que sacudirá este mundo: "porque los poderes de los cielos serán conmovidos."

Eso sería aterrador para aquellos que no están preparados, Jesús ve a sus seguidores en una situación muy diferente: "cuando estas señales comiencen a suceder, párense erguidos y levanten la cabeza porque su redención está cerca." Esta intervención masiva es una buena noticia para nosotros, porque Dios está en movimiento.

¡Feliz Año Nuevo! Debido a que estamos listos para dejar ir lo que tenemos, podemos aceptar el nuevo mundo que Dios está introduciendo. Debido a que no estamos apegados a la casa de hoy, al auto de hoy o al trabajo de hoy, podemos dejarlo todo como Dios nos trae el día que "asaltará a todos los habitantes de la faz de la tierra."

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Preparing the Manger

Where do you fall in the “Christmas-songs-in-November” debate — do you like them, tolerate them, or outright hate them? There’s no theological problem with Christmas songs in November outside of worship, even if it’s not everyone’s cup of tea. But there is a problem with getting so caught up in the baggage of the season — the trimmings, the gifts, the celebrations, all of which are marvelous in their own way — that you forget to prepare the manger.

Every good Catholic knows that Lent is a penitential season. It’s hard to miss that point — Lent doesn’t even have any fun songs you can groove to on the radio. We are pretty good at recognizing that Lent calls us to examine ourselves. To deny ourselves. To give of ourselves. And most of all, Lent calls us to prepare, as a good steward does, for the return of our master.

It’s harder for us to remember that with Advent, but Advent is just as much of an opportunity for penance, preparation, and reconciliation to God — and just as much reason, too. The very name of the season — “advent” — encourages us to focus on what is coming, not what is already here. Be on guard, the readings tell us today, “so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and (the coming of the Lord) catch you unexpectedly, like a trap.”

So let us not forget — our master’s advent is upon us. And let us ask ourselves: how can we prepare the manger?
