MARK 1:24

Pastor's Corner

Well, it looks like winter may have finally decided to show up this past week with some rain and convincing wind. Our pavilions took a pounding Tuesday night as Mother Nature reintroduced herself. We moved the needle a smidge closer to getting some of the precipitation needed to see us through the summer.

With our Masses still being set up outdoors we are more aware of the weather than ever. When we live in insulated dwellings, shuttled around by temperature controlled vehicles, we lose touch with the real world. Jesus calls us this year to meet him outdoors at his altar, and suddenly we become very aware of each breeze and cloud.

We were brought outside for January's somber commemoration. With our prayerful protests of the legal slaughter of our children, we walked down Market Street in San Francisco last Saturday, and prayed in front of our local abortion clinic this Friday. Human life has value no matter how many times it is attacked, and we have the extraordinary privilege of standing up to profess what treasure we have been given.

Being a follower of Jesus could make us sound a lot like postmen. We associate the United States Mail with delivery in any weather condition, thanks to the age old words of Herodotus: "Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds." Perhaps worshipping the living God is even more important than ensuring that junk mail makes it into your mailbox.

As we kick off Catholic Schools Week today we recognize that we have received an extraordinary gift that we are responsible for handing on. Saint Mark in our gospel today reminds us that Jesus has no ordinary message: "The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes." We are not going to let a little rain, a little wind, a little hassle prevent us from drawing near to the altar of God, or handing down the treasure that can transform the coming generation.

Rincón Del Pastor

Bueno, parece que el invierno finalmente decidió aparecerse la semana pasada con algo de lluvia y viento convincente. Nuestros pabellones sufrieron un fuerte martilleo el Martes por la noche cuando la Madre Naturaleza se volvió a presentar. Movimos la aguja un poco más cerca para obtener algo de la precipitación necesaria para pasar al verano.

Con nuestras Misas aún organizadas al aire libre, estamos más conscientes del clima que nunca. Cuando vivimos en viviendas aisladas, transportados por vehículos con temperatura controlada, perdemos contacto con el mundo real. Jesús nos llama este año para encontrarnos con Él al aire libre en Su altar, y de repente nos damos cuenta de cada brisa y cada nube.

Nos llevaron afuera para la sombría conmemoración de Enero. Con nuestras protestas en oración por la masacre legal de nuestros hijos, caminamos por Market Street en San Francisco el Sábado pasado y oramos frente a nuestra clínica de abortos local este Viernes. La vida humana tiene valor sin importar cuántas veces sea atacada, y tenemos el extraordinario privilegio de profesar y defender el tesoro que se nos ha dado.

Ser un seguidor de Jesús podría hacernos sonar como carteros. Asociamos el correo de los Estados Unidos con la entrega en cualquier condición climática, gracias a las antiguas palabras de Herodoto: "Ni la nieve, ni la lluvia, ni el calor, ni la penumbra de la noche impiden a estos mensajeros que terminen rápidamente sus rondas asignadas." Quizás adorando a Dios es aún más importante que asegurarse de que la basura del correo llegue a su buzón.

Al dar inicio a la Semana celebrando a las Escuelas Católicas hoy, reconocemos que hemos recibido un regalo extraordinario que somos responsables de entregar. San Marcos en nuestro evangelio de hoy nos recuerda que Jesús no tiene un mensaje ordinario: "La gente estaba asombrada de su enseñanza, porque les enseñó como alguien que tiene autoridad y no como los escribas." No vamos a permitir que un poco de lluvia, un poco de viento, un poco de incomodidad nos impidan acercarnos al altar de Dios o entregar el tesoro que puede transformar a la generación por venir.

MUSIC MINISTRY

St. Isidore Church Music Ministry is in need of a DIGITAL KEYBOARD (88 keys, with instrumental changes between the sounds piano and organ) to be used during masses at St. Isidore Church. It must come with a stand and a foot pedal (for Sound sustaining).

We are asking for donations to purchase this KEYBOARD to continue the beautiful music accompanying our vocalists. If you would like to donate to this effort, please put in an envelope marked "Music Ministry" and drop it in the Sunday collection basket or mail it to Parish Office. Thank you for your generosity, may God bless you.

Faith Formation Prayer and Catechesis in the Domestic Church

This week, our families will be reflecting on Psalm 23: The Lord is my Shepherd. Jesus, our Good Shepherd, provides for all our needs. He gives us rest and refreshment and guides us on the path of beauty and righteousness. Our Good Shepherd wants the best for us, and He gently calls us by name to follow Him. Our families are reflecting on this loving care of our Shepherd and the promise of His goodness and mercy, that we will "dwell in the house of the Lord forever".

If you would like information about Family Faith Formation or would like to help, please contact Michelle Knox at mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org

Formación de Fe Familiar Oración y Catequesis en la Iglesia Doméstica

Esta semana, nuestras familias reflexionarán sobre el Salmo 23: El Señor es mi Pastor. Jesús, nuestro Buen Pastor, satisface todas nuestras necesidades. Él nos da descanso y refrigerio y nos guía por el camino de la belleza y la justicia. Nuestro Buen Pastor quiere lo mejor para nosotros, y amablemente nos llama por nuestro nombre para seguirlo. Nuestras familias están reflexionando sobre este cuidado amoroso de nuestro Pastor y la promesa de Su bondad y misericordia, que "habitemos en la casa del Señor para siempre".

Si desea información sobre la Formación de Fe Familiar o desea ayudar, comuníquese con Michelle Knox en mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org

El Ministerio de Música

El Ministerio de Música de la Iglesia de San Isidro necesita un teclado digital (88 teclas, con cambios instrumentales entre los sonidos del piano y el órgano) para usar durante las Misas. Debe venir con un soporte y un pedal (para sostener el sonido). Estamos solicitando donaciones para la compra de estos equipos musicales para continuar con la hermosa música que acompaña a nuestras vocalistas. Si desea hacer una donación para este esfuerzo, por favor coloque un sobre marcado "Ministerio de Música" y déjelo en la canasta de la colecta dominical o envíelo por correo a la Oficina Parroquial. Gracias por su generosidad, que Dios los bendiga.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

There is a paradox here. Being temporarily deprived of that “living bread that came down from heaven” can have a positive side. Our hunger for the Eucharist only increases in time like this, even as we fall back on the alternative spiritual communion. Painful as it is, our frustration at not being able to attend Mass is a blessing in its own way.”

4th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Mark 1:21-28

Brené Brown's 2010 book entitled, "The Gifts of Imperfection" introduces a term that I love: gremlins. I previously only knew that word as the title of the 1984 film with Howie Mandel. Brown refers to negative self-talk as "gremlins." Self-talk is that interior conversation that we have, either positive or negative. This self-talk governs our moods, attitudes, and worldview.

In the spiritual life, there's a similar concept. The Christian East calls it λογίζομαι (logizomai) which roughly means 'thoughts.' These logizomai (or thoughts) of the spiritual life are akin to gremlins or negative self-talk in the psychological sphere. In Christian spirituality, the goal is Christ and becoming more like him in every way. But the logizomai can get in the way, just as the gremlins of negative self-talk can get in the way of psychological health. The nagging quality of these logizomai might be described as temptations, yet today's Gospel calls out these plaguing thoughts as 'unclean spirits.' We all have them; they come in varied ways and intensities, affecting every facet of our lives, in small and in big ways. And St. Paul wants us to be free of these anxiety-producing thoughts that disrupt the interior peace and quietude for which our souls so desperately long. St. Paul isn't saying that the demands of responsible living are detrimental to the spiritual life. Rather, he is saying that the presence of these tempting logizomai are the beginnings of sin taking deeper root in our soul, influencing our attitudes and behaviors, moving us farther away from the image of Christ within our souls.

These pesky unclean spirits know the power of Christ, even though we might not; they lose their stronghold when we call on the name of Jesus, just like darkness immediately disappears when I turn on the light switch as I enter a room. In the spiritual realm, these unclean spirits are there only because I have knowingly, or sometimes unknowingly, given them permission to be there. But I also have the power to evict them! Calling on Jesus' name is not like some magical incantation or spell that we wield over dark forces. The Catechism describes it this way: "The invocation of the holy name of Jesus is the simplest way of praying always. When the holy name is repeated often by a humbly attentive heart, the prayer is not lost by heaping up empty phrases, but holds fast to the word and "brings forth fruit with patience." This prayer is possible "at all times" because it is not one occupation among others but the only occupation: that of loving God, which animates and transfigures every action in Christ Jesus," (CCC 2668).

St. Diadochos of Photiki describes the opposite reality of anxiety, tranquility of soul, and how to come about it:

The light that true knowledge gives out is the ability to distinguish unerringly what is right from what is wrong. This being so, the path of uprightness — which leads the mind towards God, the radiant sun of righteousness — takes that same mind into an unbounded light of knowledge and then leads it on to seek trustingly for love.

Those who are struggling in battle ought always to keep their souls free of the tumultuous waves of distraction. If they do this, the mind will be able to distinguish among the thoughts that come to it. The good thoughts, sent by God, they can store in the treasure-house of their memory. The evil thoughts, sent by the devil, they can throw out.

In just the same way, when the sea is calm, the fisherman can see to the bottom of it and practically no fish can escape his gaze; but if it is stirred up by wind and storm, it becomes opaque when in calm times it was transparent — and when that happens, even the wiliest fisherman is wasting his time. The tranquil soul is one free of the anxieties described by St. Paul and the unclean spirits described in the Gospel. But this tranquility of soul is not a cheap quality; it must be earned through daily disciplines of prayer, fasting, and repentance. This is what we can do; it is Jesus who returns us to our right minds (cf Mk 5:15; Lk 15:17) because ours was transformed and renewed by the power of Jesus' name (cf Rom 12:2). Imagine what life could be like if we continually operated out of a tranquil soul rather than an anxious one!

Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis recalls the 150th anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. To mark the occasion, the Holy Father has proclaimed a "Year of Saint Joseph" from 8 December 2020, to 8 December 2021.

SAINT JOSEPH

SPOUSE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Consecration to St. Joseph

"What does it mean for a person to be consecrated to St. Joseph? Well, it means that you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely into his paternal care so that he can help you acquire his virtues and become holy. Total consecration to St. Joseph means you make a formal act of filial entrustment to your spiritual father so that he can take care of your spiritual well-being and lead you to God. The person who consecrates himself to St. Joseph wants to be as close to their spiritual father as possible, to the point of resembling him in virtue and holiness. Saint Joseph, in turn, will give those consecrated to him his undivided attention, protection, and guidance."

Fr. Donald Calloway, famously known for his book 33 Days to Morning Glory – a consecration to the Blessed Mother- has written Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father. The book includes daily meditations, studies, and prayers for St. Joseph." FYI, starting the book on February 15 ends with consecration on the Solemnity of St. Joseph on March 19. The book is easy to purchase at consecrationtostjoseph.org, Catholic bookstores, ebook, Amazon, Kindle, Marian Press, and Fr. Calloway's website at fathercalloway.com or call at 413-298-1399 Monday-Friday during business hours.

2021 – Año de San José

El Papa Francisco convoca a un «Año de San José» Con la Carta apostólica Patris corde (Con corazón de padre), el Pontífice recuerda el 150 aniversario de la declaración de san José como Patrono de la Iglesia Universal y, con motivo de esta ocasión, a partir del 8 de diciembre 2020 hasta el 8 de diciembre de 2021 se celebrará un año dedicado especialmente a él.

Consagración a San José

"¿Qué significa estar consagrado/a a San José? Bueno, significa que reconoces que él es tu padre espiritual y quieres ser como él. Para demostrarlo, te entregas por completo a su cuidado paterno para que te ayude a adquirir sus virtudes y santificarte. La consagración total a San José significa que haces un acto formal de encomienda filial a tu padre espiritual para que pueda cuidar de tu bienestar espiritual y conducirlo a Dios. Quien se consagra a San José quiere estar lo más cerca posible de su padre espiritual, hasta el punto de parecerse a él en virtud y santidad. San José, a su vez, dará a los consagrados su atención, protección y guía indivisa".

El Sacerdote Donald Calloway, famoso por su libro 33 para un hermoso amanecer, una consagración a la Santísima Madre, ha escrito Consagración a San José: Las maravillas de nuestro padre espiritual. El libro incluye meditaciones diarias, estudios y oraciones por San José ". Para su información, si comienza a leer el 15 de febrero termina con la consagración en la Solemnidad de San José el 19 de marzo.

El libro es fácil de comprar en consecrationtostjoseph.org, librerías católicas, ebook, Amazon, Kindle, Marian Press y Fr. El sitio web de Calloway en fathercalloway.com o llame al 413-298-1399 de lunes a viernes durante el horario de oficina.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Embracing Change in Christ

It's officially one month since we popped the champagne, toasted 2021 and wrote down a list of resolutions. This is usually the time when we start to take a good, hard look in the mirror to assess what we have done — or have not done — with the first month of this brand-new year.

New years can be scary, can't they? Full of promise, sure, but also full of room for failure. Full of space for our old baggage, old fears and the continuation of old mistakes.

The same can be said of Christ, and the new life he offers us, if we are brave enough to accept it. Opportunities like that can be intimidating. In that moment, we might find ourselves like the man with the unclean spirit crying out: "What have you to do with me, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us?"

Jesus is a comforter of the afflicted; he is a consoling figure, but he is also a challenging one. Sometimes we have grown attached to our afflictions. The idea of correcting bad habits or forming new ones is frankly terrifying to us. We have a voice deep inside who sees Christ and his invitation to repentance, and it cries out in fear: "I know who you are!"

When we live in the present, disavowing the baggage of the past or fear of the future, we submit ourselves to the promise of redemption. Let us be brave everyday stewards and invite Christ's healing power into our lives. We won't regret it — I'm sure the demoniac never did.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Aceptando el Cambio en Cristo

Oficialmente ha pasado un mes desde que abrimos el champán, brindamos por 2021 y escribimos una lista de resoluciones. Este suele ser el momento en el que empezamos a mirarnos detenidamente en el espejo para evaluar lo que hemos hecho, o no hemos hecho, en el primer mes de este nuevo año.

Los años nuevos pueden dar miedo, ¿no? Llenos de promesas, seguro, pero también llenos de espacio para el fracaso. Llenos de espacio para nuestro viejo equipaje, viejos miedos y la continuación de viejos errores.

Lo mismo se puede decir de Cristo y de la nueva vida que nos ofrece, si somos lo suficientemente valientes para aceptarlo. Oportunidades como esa pueden resultar intimidantes. En ese momento, podríamos encontrarnos como el hombre con el espíritu inmundo que gritaba: "¿Qué tienes que ver conmigo, Jesús de Nazaret? ¿Has venido a destruirnos?"

Jesús es un consolador de los afligidos; es una figura consoladora, pero también desafiante. A veces nos hemos apegado a nuestras aflicciones. La idea de corregir malos hábitos o formar nuevos es francamente aterradora para nosotros. Tenemos una voz en el fondo que ve a Cristo y su invitación al arrepentimiento, y grita de miedo: "¡Sé quién eres!"

Cuando vivimos en el presente, renegando del equipaje del pasado o del miedo al futuro, nos sometemos a la promesa de la redención. Seamos corresponsables valientes todos los días e invitemos el poder sanador de Cristo a nuestras vidas. No nos arrepentiremos, estoy seguro de que el endemoniado nunca lo hizo.
