PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Pastor's Corner

Holy Week begins! Now we walk with Jesus, first in joyful welcome as he enters Jerusalem as triumphant king, and then in the intimacy of the Upper Room, to the darkness of the Garden of Olives, to the bleakness of Calvary, to the stillness of a small tomb in a garden.

Holy Week holds particular meaning for us after we were prevented from gathering last year during the Covid shutdowns. In celebrating Jesus' Paschal mysteries this year, we fold in all of our experiences of this past year, including our losses, setbacks and sorrows. Just as the Father was fully present to all of Jesus' suffering, so also is our God to us as we commend into his sanctifying hands all we have passed through.

Holy Week calls us deeper, and one of the most significant gifts of that depth is joy. Like the waters of a lake, whether Tahoe or Galilee, even as winds whip the surface into chop, the deeper you go the less the water is disturbed. As our Father draws us more deeply into the mysteries of Jesus' love, we discover that even as we have been agitated at the surface, joy abides through it all.

Holy Week, which leads us through moments found in the Luminous, Sorrowful and Glorious mysteries of the rosary, shows us that joy is found in them all. Even, and especially, as we see Jesus' blood pouring forth from his pierced heart, we know that these deeds of Jesus are not for our diminishment but for our fulfillment. As you enter into these moments of Jesus' life, and see them reflected in your own life, begin to sense the joy God is introducing.

Holy Week is our moment to discover that our God has worked mightily, and is at work in our lives today. A lot has tried to grab our attention over the past twelve months, but now we rediscover that love holds us together, that God has always had more in store for us.

Holy Week begins!

Rincón Del Pastor

¡La Semana Santa empieza! Ahora caminamos con Jesús, primero en gozosa bienvenida al entrar en Jerusalén como rey triunfante, y luego en la intimidad del Cenáculo, a la oscuridad del Huerto de los Olivos, a la desolación del Calvario, a la quietud de una pequeña tumba en un jardín.

La Semana Santa tiene un significado particular para nosotros después de que se nos impidió reunirnos el año pasado durante el shutdown de Covid. Al celebrar los misterios pascuales de Jesús este año, incorporamos todas nuestras experiencias del año pasado, incluidas nuestras pérdidas, reveses y dolores. Así como el Padre estuvo plenamente presente en todo el sufrimiento de Jesús, así también es nuestro Dios para nosotros cuando encomendamos en sus manos santificadoras todo lo que hemos pasado.

La Semana Santa nos llama más profundo, y uno de los dones más significativos de esa profundidad es el gozo. Como las aguas de un lago, ya sea de Tahoe o de Galilea, incluso cuando los vientos azotan la superficie, cuanto más profundo se va, menos se perturba el agua. A medida que nuestro Padre nos sumerge más profundamente en los misterios del amor de Jesús, descubrimos que incluso cuando hemos sido agitados en la superficie, el gozo permanece a través de todo.

La Semana Santa, que nos lleva a través de momentos que se encuentran en los misterios Luminosos, Dolorosos y Gloriosos del Rosario, nos muestra que el gozo se encuentra en todos ellos. Incluso, y especialmente, cuando vemos la sangre de Jesús brotar de su corazón traspasado, sabemos que estas obras de Jesús no son para nuestra disminución, sino para nuestra realización. Al entrar en estos momentos de la vida de Jesús y verlos reflejados en su propia vida, comience a sentir el gozo que Dios está introduciendo.

La Semana Santa es nuestro momento para descubrir que nuestro Dios ha obrado poderosamente y está obrando en nuestras vidas hoy. Mucho ha tratado de captar nuestra atención durante los últimos doce meses, pero ahora redescubrimos que el amor nos mantiene unidos, que Dios siempre ha tenido más para nosotros.

¡La Semana Santa empieza!

Prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday April 11, 2021!!

In her Diary, St. Faustina records a special promise given to her by Jesus. He told her to communicate it to the whole world: "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy" (699). In her Diary, St. Faustina records our Lord's promises of specific, extraordinary graces: "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy" (1109). To receive these graces, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy. *A plenary indulgence, obtained by fulfilling the usual conditions, also is available. Keep in mind that, to fittingly observe the Feast of Mercy, we should: 1. Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter. 2. Sincerely repent of all our sins. 3. Place our complete trust in Jesus. 4. Go to Confession, preferably before that Sunday. 5. Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast. 6. Venerate the Image of The Divine Mercy. 7. Be merciful to others, through our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf. *A plenary indulgence, granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on Divine Mercy Sunday, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in You!)..." St Isidore's will prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday with the Divine Mercy Novena; it will be prayed at 3:00pm in the Church in both English and Spanish every day from April 2 to April 10. Divine Mercy Celebration will be April 11 at 3:00 with a holy hour. Information: Cathy 755-1536 or Teresa 645-7122.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS Walk Every Step with Christ

Holy Week is a week for being mindful. We must set loose the baggage of Lent, and not be deterred by the dazzling sunrise of Easter morning beckoning in the distance.

It's okay for us to be excited for Easter. We've waited so long, after all. In my opinion it's one of the best feelings there is: the yearning we have in our hearts for the Resurrection as we embark on Palm Sunday. And in a purely logical sense, many of us have Easter celebrations for which we are preparing, and practical considerations to contend with. It's going to be a busy week, one likely full of happy distractions. But my friends, we simply must keep our feet on the ground. Let's not "skip" Holy Week. Resist the urge to flip to the last page of the book, to fast-forward to the final scene of the movie. Don't rob yourself of the journey. This week is a blessed opportunity. It is this week that teaches us who we are. In the span of the Triduum, we have the birthday of the priesthood, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrifice on Calvary and so many other vivid and meaningful scenes.

It may sound strange, to advise someone to savor the moments of Holy Week. There are so many violent and heartrending moments, after all. But this is the valley of tears, remember — we are not in Heaven yet. And here, in our fallen, sin-filled world, it is the heartrending moments that seem to matter the most. These are the moments that define us as Catholics. Live them. Cherish them. Be present for each one.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Camine cada paso con Cristo

La Semana Santa es una semana para estar atento. Debemos soltar el equipaje de la Cuaresma y no dejarnos desalentar por el deslumbrante amanecer de la mañana de Pascua llamándonos en la distancia.

Está bien que estemos emocionados por la Pascua. Después de todo, hemos esperado tanto. En mi opinión es uno de los mejores sentimientos que hay: el anhelo que tenemos en el corazón por la Resurrección al embarcarnos en el Domingo de Ramos. Y en un sentido puramente lógico, muchos de nosotros tenemos celebraciones de Pascua para las que nos estamos preparando y consideraciones prácticas con las que lidiar. Será una semana ocupada, probablemente llena de distracciones felices. Pero amigos míos, simplemente debemos mantener los pies en el suelo. No nos "saltemos" la Semana Santa. Resiste la tentación de pasar a la última página del libro para avanzar rápidamente a la escena final de la película. No te robes el viaje. Esta semana es una oportunidad bendecida. Es esta semana la que nos enseña quiénes somos. En el lapso del Triduo, tenemos el nacimiento del sacerdocio, la institución de la Eucaristía, el sacrificio en el Calvario y tantas otras escenas vivas y significativas.

Puede sonar extraño, aconsejar a alguien que saboree los momentos de la Semana Santa. Después de todo, hay tantos momentos violentos y desgarradores. Pero este es el valle lágrimas, recuerdas, todavía no estamos en el cielo. Y aquí, en nuestro mundo caído y lleno de pecado, son los momentos desgarradores los que parecen importar más.

Estos son los momentos que nos definen como católicos. Vívelos. Aprécialos. Estate presente para cada uno de ellos.
