31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.'" And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." - Mk 12:32, 34ab

PASTOR'S CORNER

Imagine hearing, "I love you." How do you respond? Obviously, it depends on who's speaking, but the words themselves ask for a response. "I appreciate that"? "Thank you"? "That's nice"?

Love doesn't want approval, appreciation, tolerance. The only real response to "I love you" is "I love you too".

This is the biggest problem we have with God. The divine sovereign isn't looking for subordinates, allies or acquaintances. He's made a marvelous world that's very enjoyable for humans to live in, but he's not just looking for our satisfaction. God says, "I love you", and he really wants you to love him back.

This is very disruptive. Each of us have our plans and projects, our issues and anxieties. Then God sweeps in demanding total reorientation, and he's not appeased by anything else.

Even worse, in today's Gospel Jesus enshrines this as a commandment. Quoting Moses he states: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart." We also have to love our neighbor, and our neighbor isn't doing a great job of showing they care about us all that much.

A possibility is that the same creator who crafts sunsets, strawberries and bunny rabbits also knows what we are truly meant for. And that he can lift up our hearts to our true potential: up from our fatigue, up from our pain, up from our striving, to our true self. Loved by him and full of love.

Rincón Del Pastor

Imaginate escuchar, "Te amo". ¿Cómo respondes? Obviamente, depende de quién este hablando, pero las palabras mismas piden una respuesta. "Gracias"? "Qué lindo"?

El amor no quiere aprobación, aprecio, tolerancia. La única respuesta real a "te amo" es "yo también te amo".

Este es el mayor problema que tenemos con Dios. El soberano divino no busca subordinados, aliados o conocidos. Ha creado un mundo maravilloso en el que los humanos disfrutan mucho para vivir, pero no solo busca nuestra satisfacción. Dios dice: "Te amo", y realmente quiere que tú también lo ames.

Esto es muy perturbador. Cada uno de nosotros tiene nuestros planes y proyectos, nuestros problemas y ansiedades. Entonces Dios llega exigiendo una reorientación total, y nada más lo apacigua.

Peor aún, en el evangelio de hoy Jesús consagra esto como un mandamiento. Citando a Moisés, dice: "Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón". También tenemos que amar a nuestro prójimo, y nuestro vecino no está haciendo un gran trabajo demostrando que se preocupa tanto por nosotros.

Una posibilidad es que el mismo creador que elabora atardeceres, fresas y conejitos también sepa para qué estamos realmente destinados. Y que puede elevar nuestros corazones a nuestro verdadero potencial: desde nuestra fatiga, desde nuestro dolor, desde nuestro esfuerzo, hasta nuestro verdadero yo. Amado por Él y lleno de amor.

Shepherds Field Olive Wood Handcrafts

"A group from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be selling religious articles after masses to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem. As a tradition, many of the Catholic families in the Holy Land work in small workshops to produce religious articles from olive wood. These articles represent the Christian art of the Holy Land. In the past, they used to sell their artwork to pilgrims who visit the Holy Land. The percentage of Christians in the Holy Land has dropped from 20% to less than 1%. Therefore, if this hardship continues as it is now, we believe that in a few years, there will be no Catholics in Bethlehem or Jerusalem. The struggle to preserve the Catholic identity of the birthplace of our savior; Jesus Christ is a serious concern for Catholics around the world. Sales will be used to help and support the Catholics in the Holy Land and to encourage them not to immigrate."
