QUINCEAÑERA REQUIREMENTS

6) Attire. It is not necessary to wear a quinceañera dress for this celebration, but you should dress modestly and keep the following in mind: The quinceañera mass is celebrated inside the church. The quinceañera and her “damas”, chamberlains and court should dress modestly. Remember that the quinceañera is still a child, so out of respect for her and others present, keep the following in mind when choosing attire: no sleeveless or strapless dresses are allowed. This includes the quinceañera and her damas. Dresses must be at least knee length. The quinceañera and her escorts wearing sleeveless or strapless dresses must wear a shawl or other garment that adequately covers them. No revealing necklines or slits, bare midriffs, short dresses, dresses with high slits, skin-tight, low-cut or backless dresses are permitted. This is not appropriate in the presence of Christ or in a sacred celebration.

7) Rehearsal. We will arrange for a rehearsal prior to your event. The parish office will notify you of the date and time. It is very important to be on time and respect the coordinating team.

8) Photography. All photographers will contact the event coordinator or priest to go over the rules of photography. In general, photographs may be taken during the ceremony from anywhere in the church except the sanctuary or altar. No equipment is allowed on the altar. Stepping on the altar is not permitted. All photographs must not interfere in any way with the religious ceremony. Please be sure to inform the photographer of our rules.
- You will have 15 minutes after the Quinceañera Mass to take pictures. No one should be standing at the altar at the time of the photographs.

9) Guests. Please instruct your guests to enter and sit inside the church. No eating, drinking or chewing gum is allowed inside the church.

10) Adoration. At St. Isidore Church, we have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar 24 hours a day. If the Blessed Sacrament is still exposed upon entering the church, please instruct your guests to remain silent and reverent.

To register for the desired date, please complete the following application and submit the required documents.
